Innovate Limerick
invites applications for the position of

General Manager

Background

Headquartered at Engine on Cecil Street in the heart of Limerick city and across multiple smaller locations across county Limerick, the aim of Innovate Limerick is to create a world class innovation ecosystem to allow companies collaborate and incubate to create new innovative and disruptive solutions. At a high level the Engine Collaboration Centre provides a space to allow companies collaborate to solve business problems. It also provides support to start-ups and entrepreneurs develop their ideas through industry mentoring, knowledge sharing and a co-working space and leveraging the latest emerging technologies and design thinking methods. Our shared work space and experienced staff at Engine, Rathkeale Enterprise Centre and Engine Hubs, facilitates a start-up ecosystem by providing a valuable community from where you can grow, share knowledge and form connections. Strategic direction is provided by the Board of Innovate Limerick who are now seeking to recruit an experienced General Manager to oversee operations and drive innovation. The successful candidate will be required to make a significant contribution to the implementation of a strategic plan to support enterprise, entrepreneurship and job creation at a local level in the Limerick region.

The Position

We are currently seeking to hire a General Manager. As General Manager you will possess significant demonstrable senior management experience and have a strong background in Commercial and Operations Management. The General Manager will be a resilient, passionate multitasker focused on delivering growth and managing a cost base with strong financial acumen. The role will include the management of relationships with current enterprise centre tenants along with the recruitment of new clients, management of the various business and innovation programmes and overseeing the planning, design, and construction of a new extension.

You will join a dynamic, focused team and will generate strategies that will grow revenue, enterprise development and contribute to the Limerick's innovation reputational experiences. You will possess strong strategic, analytical, execution and team management skills.

You will play a critical role in the business, ensuring all staff adhere to company policies, procedures and compliance, being accountable for achieving the budget set and undertake regular reviews to ensure targets are maintained.
